MRS. IDA McDONALD,

Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the hollow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

that I must do some to regain my health friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Thedford's Black-Draught.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

CONFUSION MENTALLY PRAISES THE PONTIFF

The Pope For a Time Oblivious to His Surroundings.

OPINION OF DOCTORS.

Say Condition of His Kidneys Is Bad and the Diminution of Certain Elements Causes Them to Fear Dissolution.

Rome, July 13.—The dizziness from which the pope suffered was a kind of mental confusion, during which he seemed to lose consciousness of his surroundings, while he believed he saw a vision. He explained afterwards that he thought he saw an undefined shadow moving about the room and slowly approaching his bed, whereupon the pontiff became agitated and called for his valet, Pio Centra, saying: "Pio, Pio, who is it? Who is it?" Dr. Laponi and Centra rushed to the patient's bed and succeeded in tranquilizing him. It developed as the result of a careful medical examination that the condition of the pope's kidneys are worse, the component parts of the urine not being normal. The diminution of certain elements leads the doctors to fear that his system is gradually approaching dissolution. No traces of albumen were found, indicating, although the kidneys are not performing their functions properly, they are not themselves organically diseased.

Pope Leo is credited with having said: "If I am destined to die from this illness I feel I shall expire on Thursday, the feast day of Carmelita Madonna, whom I specially worship." This prophecy is remarkable because in a certain way it coincides with a prophecy made in the twelfth century by St. Malechy, bishop of Armagh, who predicted that Pope Leo would be succeeded by a pope symbolizing the motto, "Ignis ardens" (burning fire). Carmelita Madonna is the patroness of the Carmelite order, which attributes its origin to the prophet Elijah, who ascended to heaven in a chariot of fire. Besides a member and protector of this order, Cardinal Gottl, is looked upon as the next likely successor to the pontificate.

The pope's condition took a turn slightly for the worse, but the change does not excite apprehension of an immediate climax Sunday night was rather a sleepless one, particularly during the early morning hours. The official bulletin frankly speaks of agitated periods during the night and confesses to the general condition of the patient as being somewhat more depressed. It developed that soon after the issuance of the bulletin this depression was quite marked and it continued to manifest itself throughout the forenoon, at one time assuming an alarming aspect. This was when the pope seemed to lose his grasp on tangible surroundings. For the first time since his illness began there was momentary hallucination, the patient believing that a shadow flitted through the room. The doctor and attendant succeeded in quieting his fears. Outside of these passing periods of depression the general condition of mental alertness continues. When Drs. Mazzoni and Laponi made the morning call the patient inquired about Dr. Rossini, asking: "Why does not he come to see me?" Being told that Rossini was ill, he said: "Tell him he must take care of himself."

Condition Worse.

Rome, July 13.—At 7 o'clock Monday evening the pope's condition was becoming worse. No cardinals were permitted to enter the sick chamber.

PRAYED FOR PONTIFF.

Grace Methodist Church, Chicago, Appealed to Almighty For Him. Chicago, July 13.—Prayers for the speedy recovery or the happy death of Pope Leo were said in all the Roman Catholic churches of Chicago Sunday. Even in Grace Methodist Episcopal church a prayer was offered for the pontiff. In Holy Family church in West Twelfth street nine masses were sung during the day, and before each mass announcement was made of the serious illness of the pope. Fifteen thousand persons attended the masses in this church alone. A eulogy to the pope was also delivered in the Hemenway Methodist Episcopal church, Evanston.

THIRTY LIVES LOST.

Disastrous Results of a Flood in a Valley in Austria. Breslau, Prussia, July 13.—Thirty lives have been lost in a flood which destroyed fifty houses at Graeffenberg, a village of Austria, in the valley at Freldwaldau.

Methodist Clergyman Pays Tribute to Dying Ecclesiastic.

AMONG VERY GREAT.

Rev. G. W. Crinton Says Leo XIII. Has Controlled the Hearts of Men and Shaped the Policy of Some Governments.

New York, July 13.—A splendid tribute to the dying head of the Roman Catholic church has been uttered by the Rev. G. W. Crinton of the Forty-fourth Street Methodist Episcopal church. "It is generally the rule," he said, "to criticize a man unmercifully while he lives, to expose all his weaknesses and follies. If he be a public servant, to caricature him and hold him up to a world-wide ridicule, and then when dead to gather up his good deeds into a wreath and place them on his casket. The rule has been reversed in the application to the pontiff, about whose health and well-being millions of persons have been deeply solicitous and whose good acts have been recorded in all lands."

"His life of justice, simple dignity, kindly sympathy, have endeared the pontiff to the Catholic world, who delight to pay tribute to the statesmanship, tact and splendid genius of their loved pope, who has done much for the progress of civilization. From crowned head to peasant, from president to laboring man, prayers and good wishes have been expressed for this remarkable man."

"Leo has known no nationality, but has been interested in all. Deprived of temporal power, he has possessed a greater power, a dynamic, that has controlled the hearts of men and shaped in many instances the policies of monarchies and republics. He has restored the golden age of the papacy in its best sense. As philanthropist, poet, educator and reformer the name of Leo XIII. will be placed among the very great, if not the greatest pope in history."

Large Deal at Waxahachie.

Waxahachie, Tex., July 13.—Three deeds were filed in the county clerk's office by the American Cotton company, known as the round bale trust, disposing of its Ellis county holdings to the Texas Cotton Products company. The aggregate amount of the transaction is $51,722. The property consisted of two round bale gins, one at Waxahachie and one at Alsdorf, and real estate in Elnnis. The Waxahachie gin is valued at $32,000.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and expose the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucin instead of the juice of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

NEW RAILWAY SPUR.

Rumored that the Santa Fe Contemplates Building up the Bottom from Clay.

There was a pretty well authenticated rumor current on our streets Thursday to the effect that the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway company are seriously considering the advisability of building a spur up the Brazos bottom from Clay Station to a point nearly opposite Stone City, covering virtually the route surveyed for the Brenham and Brazos Valley. It is said that Mr. Polk and his chief engineer have been over the contemplated route on a tour of inspection, and were forcibly impressed with the importance of the line as a feeder,
and thought the company would
undertake its construction at once, provided right-of-way and other necessary concessions were guaranteed. As to right-of-way, that question has been virtually settled
as every property owner on route
has often indicated their perfect willingness to donate that much towards forwarding the enterprise.
Should the Santa Fe decide to build this spur of some 18 or 20
miles, we are assured that work will be begun on it in the near future, that this year's crop may get the benefit of the conveniences offered by it.

Again, our informant assures us that the building of this spur will result in Brenham obtaining some valuable accessions to its citizenship, as a number of the big Brazos bottom farmers residing in that section have openly announced their intention of moving to Brenham and making this city their future home.—Brenham Banner.

Pope Participated in the Celebration of Mass.

SCENE WAS STRIKING

During Vespers in St. Peter's Cathedral German Students and Also Friars Entered and Offered Prayers For Pontiff.

Rome, July 13.—Pope Leo has lived to see another Sunday and with the Sabbath quiet which fell upon Rome came also peace and even progress to the pontiff. Beginning in the morning with distinct signs of improvement, he maintained this throughout the day. Dr. Laponi made the following important statement in answer to the question if he believed that the improvement in the pope's condition will continue: "I believe that if the improvement lasts until July 21 we may not, perhaps, achieve an absolute cure, but we will see such a general state of health in the patient as will allay our anxiety."

During the morning the pontiff participated in the celebration of mass. The ceremony was held in the chapel adjoining the sick chamber, Mgr. Mazzoni being the celebrant. The door connecting the sick room with the chapel was opened so that his holiness might follow the service. He insisted that Dr. Laponi and his valet, Centra, should leave his side and enter the chapel in order to better hear the mass.

The history of the day has been comparatively uneventful. The pontiff had several hours' repose. Dr. Laponi, resting near him throughout the night. The physicians twice administered injections, one to strengthen the heart and one of camphor caffeine to overcome the patient's growing depression.

There was a striking scene within St. Peter's Sunday night. In the midst of vespers, the German students all in scarlet cloaks, entered the cathedral. Behind them came German friars in rough hair cloth hassoaks, and then German students in black and white. These formed a procession and kneeling first at one altar and then at another, prayed aloud and in silence for Pope Leo. The congregation joined in the procession until the basilican was circled by a moving mass of color, and when St. Peter's tomb was reached many hundreds followed the picture of the Savior, held aloft by a statuesque monk. On one side of the brass rails which guard the entrance to the tomb knelt the nuns. Opposite, three deep, were the shorn heads of the friars, while in the center knelt the young students, their scarlet cassocks, making a blaze of color which stretched far down the dimly lighted avenue. For nearly an hour no move or sound came from these supplicants for divine interposition, save every few seconds the hoarse, monotonous cry "ora pro nobis" the dirge-like cadence of the guggle voice, drowned the Italian choir, which still sang the vespers from a neighboring altar. The rosary over the Germans filed out, their heads still bent in prayer.

Dr. Rossini Ill.

Rome, July 13.—Dr. Rossini and five newspaper men have been stricken with fever.

TWO TRAMPS KILLED.

About Fifty Negroes Were Injured as Result of a Collision.

Kansas City, July 13.—The fast mail from St. Louis, on the Missouri Pacific, due at Kansas City Sunday morning, crashed into an excursion train which had broken down at Bad Man's Cave, three miles from Lee's Summit. Two tramps were killed and fifty negroes injured. The Kansas City excursion train, which left there for Sedalia, was made up of six coaches. The engine of the St. Louis train was ditched, the baggage car splintered and one other car damaged.

Two flagmen were sent ahead to stop the fast mail, which was about due. The engineer on the passenger train failed to see the foremost flagman, and, it is said, slackened up only when informed of the danger when within only a short distance of the excursion train. The mail train was running at a high speed, and it was impossible to come to a full stop. When the mail train struck, it was going only at the rate of fifteen miles an hour. The locomotive, baggage and mail car of the mail train were ditched. Most of the injured were in the baggage car on the excursion train. This car, which had been turned into a refreshment car, contained about fifty persons, mostly negroes, when the crash occurred. These merry-makers were tumbled into a groaning mass, cut, bruised and maimed.

The injured were cared for quickly, and every attention possible given. When the track was cleared the dead were taken to Lee's Summit and the injured brought to the Missouri Pacific hospital at Kansas City. All will recover.
